Godfrey tabled a memo on the pattern of large-hatch Soviet ships engaged in trips to North Vietnam. Another such ship is preparing to leave the Black Sea today. The pattern of the activity of these ships is one of normalcy and does not appear related to military supplies. In answer to the DCI's inquiry, he was assured that steps have been taken to ensure maximum coverage of such shipping.

[] noted that he will be traveling to Saigon on 30 January.

Houston noted that two Senate proposals concerning CIA had been submitted yesterday. One is a resolution from Senator McCarthy which would have the Senate Foreign Relations Committee deal with CIA aspects, and the other is a resolution by Senator Young of Ohio to establish a Joint Committee to deal with the Agency. (See Action 1)

DCI noted a recommendation being made by General Maxwell Taylor to the President which would vest the Secretary of State with greater authorities in coordination of U. S. programs abroad and would vest the ambassador in each country with line authority over all elements of the U. S. mission. The DCI had reminded General Taylor of the DCI's responsibility to protect sources and methods, and Taylor said the recommendation to the President would cover this point. (See Action 2)

Sheldon reported that the next CORONA shot has slipped again, this time until 3 February.
